EXTRACT: 3. It is proposed, therefore, that Headquarters undertake the immediate planning of visits for SCHRUEBBERS and RADKE, the first one to take place probably sometime in the autumn since they cannot both be away simultaneously. SCHRUEBBERS is leaving on his first trip to England on 18 June. It has been said that when he returns he may take all or part of his 1956 vacation. It is not likely that he would be in a position to embark on another trip right away, or that Abt. Z of the Ministry of Interior (Personnel and Organization) would approve it, since he only returned in early May from a 3-week trip to use up his 1955 leave. We will provide additional information both on SCHRUEBBERS and on the state of things in the BfV in the near future to assist you in determining the tone of the visit and in working out the agenda. It is sufficient to say here that it is not necessary in our view that such a visit be a grand tour and cover the U.S. coasts to coast. A visit of two weeks (with a little time for hitting the sightseeing high spots) or even one week (all business) would be sufficient for a starter. xxx
